1-4 – CALL TO ORDER, INVOCATION, ROLL CALL, MASB FACILITATOR

The meeting was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by Valveta Reese, President. Invocation was led by Candise Green, Vice President.

Members Present: Cooper, Green, Hightower, Reese, Sabuda, Wheeler

Members Excused: Doig

Member Absent:

Introduction of Ms. Kimberly May, Facilitator from Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) was conducted by President Reese. Ms. May facilitated the Superintendent Evaluation Training that covers the new 2024-2025 law requirements and must be completed by September 1, 2024.

Board members introduced themselves and shared their evaluation experiences and thoughts. Dr. Coleman shared his values and how he has and will work with the Board of Education.

- The board was given an opportunity to review and share their learning targets – each member chose one that they were strong on for the today.
- Documentation, at Mid Year Progress Report, is required based on the law, which was covered at this training. The board should hold a mid-year review each year.
- Assigned rating change: effective, developing or needing support, which is done annually at the evaluation of the Superintendent.
- Question by a board member regarding is the MASB evaluation tool the only one. No, there are other tools.
- The legal requirement for training is, as stated, September 1, 2024 and every three (3) years thereafter.
- Rubric exploration was thoroughly reviewed with the board along with questions and comments.
